

Prof. Dr. Manfred Wandt

Goethe University Frankfurt
Institut für Versicherungsrecht (Institute for Insurance Law)

Manfred Wandt studied Law at the universities of Mannheim, Paris and Strasbourg. He wrote his doctoral thesis in conflict of laws and his post-doctoral thesis on international product liability. He taught as a professor at the University of Hannover, and holds the Chair of Civil Law, Commercial and Insurance Law, Private International Law and Comparative Law at Goethe University, Frankfurt, since 1995. He is director of the “Institut für Versicherungsrecht” (Institute for Insurance Law) and member of the executive board of the International Center for Insurance Regulation and the Institute for Law and Finance, at which he is responsible for the insurance section of the postgraduate program (LL.M. Finance). He is editor-in-chief of the journal “Zeitschrift für Versicherungsrecht, Haftungs- und Schadensrecht VersR” (Journal of Insurance and Liability Law) and co-editor of the “Zeitschrift für die Gesamte Versicherungswissenschaft” (Journal of Insurance Sciences). He is a member of the PEICL Group (Principles of European Insurance Contract Law) and PRICL Group (Principles of Reinsurance Contract Law) and other professional associations, including the Committee of the “Deutscher Verein für Versicherungswissenschaft” (German Association of Insurance Sciences), at which he serves as vice-president, and the International Association of Insurance Law/Association Internationale de Droit des Assurances (AIDA), at which he is member of the Presidential Council and chairman of the German Chapter. Since 2010, he is a member of the Insurance Advisory Board of the German Federal Financial Supervisory Authority (BaFin). His academic work focuses on Contract Law, Tort Law and Insurance Law in the European and International context.