Sjoerd Meijer Partner

Sjoerd Meijer advises and litigates in the areas of insurance and liability law, and also provides regulatory support. His clients are mainly insurance companies, financial institutions and insurance intermediaries. In particular Sjoerd advises on issues regarding life insurance products and the relationship between insurers and intermediaries. Recently Sjoerd assisted an insurer with the settlement of a mass claim based upon allegedly excessive costs charged for universal life insurance products.

Sjoerd graduated from the VU University in Amsterdam in 1991 and subsequently became a lecturer at that university. In 1999 he received a PhD for his dissertation regarding indirect representation (middellijke vertegenwoordiging).

Sjoerd is a member of the board of the Association for Insurance Research and the editorial board of a monthly private law journal. He is also a member of the Association for Corporate Litigation and frequently publishes and lectures on issues regarding insurance law and contract law.
